OTHER ACTIVITY

J. Site Visits:

- Milwaukee Career College (MCC) – 11/10/14 – ABHES visit to monitor the teach-out of former Anthem College students in the Massage Therapy and Medical Assisting Diploma programs at MCC.
- Wisconsin School of Professional Pet Grooming (WSPPG) – Complaint resolution follow-up visit.

K. Complaints Handled:

- Alva vs. Herzing University – 10/24/14 – Herzing worked with the student and the class to move the starting time to 6:00 p.m., following the initial set start time.
- Impens vs. Milwaukee Career College – 11/12/14 - Admission to Veterinary Technician was denied in accordance with school policies. As the student did complete the Veterinary Assistant program for which she paid, no refund is due.
- Zehten vs. Kaplan University – 11/17/14 Because the student's last date of attendance was over three years ago and did not demonstrate the school violated EAB Administrative Code nor its own policies the complaint was closed.
- Kohlmeier vs. Herzing University – 9/19/14 – The student withdrew her complaint.
- Lee vs. Herzing University – 10/26/14 - Herzing appropriately followed its policies by removing Mr. Lee from the Nursing program after repeated class failures. Mr. Lee had already been terminated from the program, appealed, and was granted another attempt.
- Poquette vs. Anthem College-Phoenix (Online) – 10/6/14 – After several unsuccessful attempts at contacting Mr. Poquette to investigate this matter, the EAB closed the complaint because Anthem College (Online) closing meant Mr. Poquette qualified for Loan Discharge through the U.S. Department of Education.
- Taylor vs. Brensten Education – 11/24/14 – Brensten contacted Ms. Taylor to better explain the situation to her. Ms. Taylor went into default on a federal loan which made her ineligible for additional loans. Brensten, was unable to enroll her for the next academic period.
